SUMMERSET STATE PARK

(222 acres)

The Banner Lakes at Summerset State Park were once a coal mine. Today, the lakes and surrounding area serve both as a wildlife management area and a recreation destination.

Visitors to Summerset can picnic, boat, fish and bike. A nearby shooting range helps hunters perfect their shot to use hunting in the nearby Middle River Wildlife Area. Mountain bikers can test their skills at any level in the mountain bike area. Summerset's trout fishery is a great spot to catch dinner.

Trails: Paved trail connects with Summerset Bike Trail; mountain biking area

Fishing: Trout fishery; lake (80 ac.): channel catfish, largemouth bass, bluegill, crappie

Boating: Boat ramps; any-size motor, no-wake speed;

Picnicking Picnic areas throughout park

Hunting: Banner shooting range; Middle River Wildlife Area
